WHAT KIND OF PROJECTS WILL I WORK ON?

Global Prairie interns are responsible for working alongside our team to deliver exceptional work to our world-class clients. During the internship, you will partner with our team on client work and new business projects in marketing, advertising and digital strategy. Interns in past years have worked on client accounts for major brands including Bayer, Galderma, Google, KCP&L, Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, the Kansas City Royals, Sherwin-Williams and Smuckers.

We are a global marketing firm that exists to cultivate a healthier world. We do this in two ways. First, we develop world-class marketing solutions exclusively for clients whose businesses improve the health of people, communities and the environment. Second, as a certified Benefit Corporation we are driven to be not only the best in the world, but the best for the world. As such, the internship program also includes philanthropy projects and opportunities to volunteer in the community.

WHAT QUALITIES DO YOU LOOK FOR IN A GLOBAL PRAIRIE SUMMER INTERN?

This summer, our interns are entering their senior year of college, are recent graduates, or are between their first and second year of business school. Successful candidates display intellectual heft and curiosity, along with exceptional work ethic and communication skills.

Global Prairie has a team-oriented, collaborative culture and we want our interns to demonstrate this as well. But you also need to show strong leadership skills, have a history of doing excellent work and demonstrate an ability to thrive in a fast-paced, changing environment. And a track record of giving back and community engagement makes you a likely fit with our purpose to cultivate a healthier world.
